Section 8 – Other EventsItem 8.01 Other Events.

Rule 10b5-1(c) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 provides an affirmative defense to insider trading liability if a person adopts a written plan for trading securities of an issuer when that that person is not aware of material nonpublic information concerning such issuer.

On October 14, 2005, certain executive officers of Greif, Inc. (“Greif”), entered into their own written individual sales plans complying with Rule 10b5-1(c) for trading securities of Greif. Under such sales plans, third-party brokers may sell specified amounts of Greif’s securities during a specified period and in accordance with prices and other terms specified by such officer. Each of the individual sales plans expire upon sale of all the securities covered by the sales plans or a specified date, subject to such officer’s right to modify their individual sales plans upon notice to the third-party broker during specified periods.
